

Downtown Shopping

Bayside Marketplace

401 Biscayne Blvd, Miami, FL 33132
www.baysidemarketplace.com

Bayside Marketplace, located on Biscayne Bay, is a two-level, open-air center with over 150 stores, shops and restaurants, including national and regional merchants such as Guess, Foot Locker, Sketchers, BabyGap, Disney Store and many more. The Marketplace is recognized nationally as a must-see destination and is the number one most visited tourist attraction in Miami with over 22 million visitors annually.

Mary Brickell Village

901 S Miami Ave, Miami, FL 33130
www.marybrickellvillage.com

Located in Brickell, Miami's financial district, Mary Brickell Village is a small, specialty mall that offers a selection of high-end boutiques selling clothing, jewelry and housewares and more, including a Publix grocery store, a FedEx Kinko's and a fitness center. The mall also has a selection of restaurants, which offers something for every taste and budget, including P.F.. Chang's, Rosa Mexicano, Burger & Beer Joint and more.

Brickell City Centre

701 S Miami Ave, Miami, FL 33131
www.brickellcitycentre.com

Brickell City Centre is four levels of unparalleled shopping, dining and entertainment anchored by a 107,000 square foot, ultra-modern Saks Fifth Avenue. The 500,000 square foot vertical shopping experience is rounded out with a mix of premium and contemporary shops filled with beauty, home decor, jewelry, apparel and much more. The restaurants and bars, an integral piece of the Brickell City Centre experience, make up the third and fourth levels, anchored by CMX, the VIP Cinema Experience.

Historic Flagler Street

At the heart of Downtown Miami is the Historic Flagler Street shopping corridor, where visitors can find great prices on everything from sporting goods, shoes, and fragrances to electronics, luggage and fashion for every family members. Flagler Street is home to iconic locations such as the Olympia Theater, Macy's department store and other specialty stores and retailers. * Currently undergoing $13 million in improvements, including: wider sidewalks, enhanced intersection crossings, installation of street trees, pavers and other pedestrian amenities. Expected completion 2019.

The Seybold Building

36 NE 1st St, Miami, FL 33132

www.seyboldjewelry.com

If you're looking for new jewelry to wear out on the town, or simply need a repair, there's no better place. Home to hundreds of jewelry shops, the Seybold Building is Florida's premiere jewelry center, as well as the second largest jewelry building in the United States. From diamonds to silver, gold and beyond, you'll find everything you desire conveniently located in the heart of Downtown Miami.

Future Shopping Destinations in Downtown Miami:

Met Square

302 SE 3 St, Miami, FL 33131

www.metropolitanmiami.com

Met Square will be the final phase in the Metropolitan Miami project. This innovative, urban center will include an 80,000 square foot cinema complex at levels 3 and 4 and 40,000 square feet of luxury retail and dining destinations at the ground and second levels.

Est. Completion Date: 2018

Miami Worldcenter

700 N Miami Ave, Miami, FL 33131

www.miamiworldcenter.com

Miami Worldcenter will be a 450,000 square foot high-street retail center with an unprecedented collection of retail offerings - including best-in-class retail, destination dining, and enticing entertainment - all in the most accessible site in the region.

Inspired by the world's great pedestrian streets, the retail at MWC builds on themes made classic by the 3rd Street Promenade in Santa Monica, the Place de l'Horloge in Avignon, and South Beach's own Lincoln Road

Est. Completion Date: 2018

