

Link to article

Miami Downtown Development Authority Accepting Applications for Downtown Creative Collaborators Grant Program

Starting July 1, 2024, the Miami Downtown Development Authority (Miami DDA) will launch the Downtown Creative Collaborators Grant Program (DCCG) to aid local visionaries in bringing projects to life that will elevate Downtown Miami's community offerings. With awards ranging from $5,000 up to $50,000, the grants give creatives a chance to let their imagination soar with creative activations, family-friendly events, art installations and more.

Designed to support creative projects and events, applicants are encouraged to develop innovative ideas that will have a demonstrable economic impact on Downtown Miami while also strengthening the appeal of the city as a global destination. Project and event idea submissions are due on Monday, August 19th, 2024, via digital submission.

Visionaries interested in participating in the grant program can apply at <https://miamidda.submittable.com/submit> or call (305) 579-6675 for additional information.