

Link to article

Fort Lauderdale's Pier Top to relaunch; Japanese restaurant to open at The Setai and more

13 latest hospitality brands that have expanded or announced openings in South Florida

Meraki Greek Bistro

Meraki Greek Bistro has moved to a larger space in downtown Miami.

Meraki Greek Bistro in downtown Miami reopened in a larger location Sept. 5. The restaurant is now at 190 S.E. First Ave., a block from its previous location at 142 S.E. First Ave. It features an expanded dining room, sidewalk seating and bar. Meraki received assistance from the Miami Downtown Development Authority's incentive grant program. Cofounded by restaurateur Alex Karavias and chef Giannis Kotsos, the restaurant originally opened in downtown Miami in 2016. The brand has a second location in Coconut Grove.