Downtown Miami agency offering grants to help Flagler businesses weather construction

Miami's Downtown Development Authority is offering grants of up to $5,000 for business owners on Flagler Street, which will be torn up in sections over the next two years for a reconstruction and beautification project. The $27 million makeover of downtown Miami's main street began in May with the goal of replacing ailing utility lines, improving drainage and creating a curbless street designed to host more street festivals.
